

CHCSS00137 – Palliative Approach

All items below MUST be present for the duration of the placement.

- Organisation offers support to individuals requiring palliative care (please select minimum of one)
  - Within aged care facility
  - Within residential environment
  - Within hospice facility
  - Service that provides within home environment
- Access to qualified workplace supervisor conducting observation
- Access to opportunities for engagement with individuals receiving palliative care
- Access to *simulated environment for supporting an individual in end-of-life care
- Access to families, carers for the purpose to support individuals through loss, grief bereavement or trauma
- Personal protective equipment appropriate to the role and work area such as gloves, aprons
- Access to workplace facilities resources and equipment to support individuals
- Access to individualised plans including additional resources outlined in plan
- Access to the Human Rights Framework
- Access to applicable workplace legislation and regulations
- All relevant policies, procedures, and workplace documentation to carry out their tasks including:
  - Work health and safety including manual handling
  - Infection control procedures
  - Reporting including mandatory
  - Risk assessment including suspected neglect or abuse
  - Managing medical conditions including pressure area
  - Incident injury, accident and trauma procedures
  - Procedures for communicating with individual, family and carers
  - Privacy and confidentiality policy
  - First aid procedures
- Workplace technology and resources for the purposes of researching advocacy services

*simulated environment must reflect real working conditions and model industry operating conditions and contingencies